Message

Many kids have come through the doors who DANCE TO LIVE and LIVE TO DANCE! For those who have the work ethic and persistence, they continue to DANCE everyday throughout their adult lives. They know they were meant to dance because every morning the first thing they think about is DANCE.

This concert is a reflection of Living to Dance and is the kick off to the celebration of 25 years of blood, sweat, tears, laughter, love and pride. Time sure does fly. However, we are reminded every day when we see the children of the former SKIP dancers walk into the studio.

We have witnessed 20 high school graduations - and they don't get any easier!!! This year Giana Pangelinan and Dominic Cadiz will be heading out to follow their dreams. Giana is the last dancer that I can ask, "Remember when our concerts were at the UOG Fine Arts Theatre?" She has been with us for the past 12 years! Dominic has become an incredible choreographer and has been leading this group for the past year. In addition, Dominic has toured with us in Australia and New Zealand assisting the teachers and spent 3 weeks with us last summer during the Hollywood Tour. We will miss you two very much! We know you are both prepared to step out into the great big world and be successful!

We have been so fortunate to work with some of Guam's most incredible kids because many parents saw the value of this program. Each and every one who has walked through the door wanting to dance has been a joy. (Well almost everyone!) Parents, thank you for sharing your kids with us!!! We are so appreciative of the outpouring of community support - thank you to all the companies who supported this concert. Your contributions make it possible for our 34 dancers to represent Guam at the Dance World Cup this year. Phil Flores, please take a bow. For the past 23 years you have been our rock and the reason we have been able to bring the quality of dance to our island along with a room full of trophies and awards! We also want to thank our wonderful instructors who have come out to Guam to choreograph for SKIP over the past few years. These instructors have huge projects, and yet they still find time to come and work with us. Tabitha & Napoleon Dumo - judges and choreographers for the 2008 season of So You Think You Can Dance, Glenn Packard - new reality television series Brooke Knows Best, Tony Czar - Season 1 of Dance War: Bruno vs Carrie Ann, Chris Jones - You Got Served, Andre Fuentes choreographer for Britney Spears and Prince, and TJ Cruz, former SKIP dancer. It is so exciting to flip on the television and see one OUR choreographers. In addition we have great instructors who prepare the dancers for the choreography including Shannon Haigler from South Carolina and former SKIP dancers, Francine Fernandez, Jason Anderson and Chad Knapp.

Thanks to you our audience - you play a huge role in why we choose to DANCE TO LIVE and LIVE TO DANCE!

Here we go again!

Once a Dancer, always a Dancer.

TO Mrs. Knapp

As the sun slowly sets on the horizon, on yet another year in SKIP's history books, we have learned from your

the confidence, you have instilled in us, to know that we are capable and have the ability to excel at whatever we wish to do, through discipline and hard work.

You have opened our eyes & our minds to the world and provided us with the strength, courage and knowledge to be able to succeed.

The SKIP Story

The SKIP Entertainment Company (SKIP) is a GUAM SUCCESS STORY! SKIP originally started as a project of Children's Productions, Incorporated in 1982, known as the Sunshine Kids in Production (SKIP). Prior to the birth of SKIP, Children's Productions staged a number of children's musicals. Soon the focus turned to dance, giving thousands of Guam's youth an opportunity to excel. Instructors and choreographers continue to come to Guam from Los Angeles and New York City to work with Guam's best.

Last July, SKIP competed against some of the most talented dancers in the world in Prague, Czech Republic, where the SKIP Entertainment Company won the Crystal Cup 2007, Grand Prix, awarded to the best dance company for all-inclusive performances at the Prague Dance Festival. SKIP won this award in front of a packed crowd at the Theatre Broadway located in the heart of Prague. The competition included numerous groups from South Korea, India, Spain, Turkey, Mexico, Israel, Switzerland, Japan, USA, Russia, Italy, Slovakia, and Belgium. In addition to winning the overall championship, SKIP won the top choreography award. According to the organizers, this is the first time one group has won the overall championship and the best choreography award. By the evening of the finals, the Guam dancers had won the hearts of the audience. Individual SKIP Dancers were also recognized for their outstanding talent including Patrick Wolff for outstanding performances, Brian Esperon for top male SR dancer and AJ Arizala for top male JR dancer.

This international recognition was truly rewarding as SKIP was named as one of the top 50 dance studios in the entire United States by Dance Teacher magazine, the year prior. Thousands from around the world were able to read about Guam's very own, SKIP Entertainment Company.

The SKIP Dancers began touring in 1985 when the first group toured the U.S. Mainland and since that time have traveled to dance competitions and performances in the U.S. Mainland, Canada, Europe and Australia every year. In 1991, members of SKIP performed on International Star Search, aired in over 63 countries. Later that year, SKIP was once again selected to appear on Ed McMahon's Star Search. That same year, SKIP dancers appeared on the cover of PERFORMER'S EDGE, a national dance publication.

From 1991 through 2006, SKIP has won numerous National and International Dance Championships. One of the most exciting competitions was during the 1996 Jazz Dance World Congress held at the Kennedy Center where SKIP won the International Choreographic Leo's Gold Award. Due to this honor, SKIP was selected as featured performers at the 1997 Jazz Dance World Congress in Weisbaden, Germany. International recognition was brought back to Guam once again when SKIP was honored by winning the Overall Dance Championship at the International Grand Prix Dance Festival in Cesena, Italy in July 2002, the Canadian National Finals in 2000 and 2004. The group is returning to Canada in July 2008, to try to win the Canadian National Finals and Dance World Cup to bring the honor back to Guam once again.

SKIP takes top honors in Prague

By Sun Kang
Pacific Daily News

After months of practice and an intense week of competition at the International Dance Grand Prix in Prague, Czech Republic, the SKIP Entertainment Company danced its way to the top, earning the Prix's two top honors — the Crystal Cup 2007 for best all-inclusive performances, and best choreography on July 7.

The troupe returned to Guam after an educational tour of Athens, Greece, with two crystal cups in tow, each embodying a distinction that currently belongs only to Guam.

"(Event organizers) told us that this has never happened before," says Knapp. "Groups that win the top choreography (award) have never won the overall."

Individual dancers were recognized, including Patrick Wolff for outstanding performances, Brian Esperon for top male senior dancer and AJ Arizala for top male junior dancer.

The Prix brought together dance companies from all over the world including groups from the U.S., South Korea, India, Spain, Turi Mexico, Israel, Switzerland, Japan, Russia, Italy, Slovakia, and

Guam wins top award at Prague dance festival

By Mar-Vic Cagurangan
Variety News Staff

NOBODY had heard of "Guam" in Prague before. Some mistook it for Guatemala. But on one particular night, the tiny Pacific island popped up in the map in front of an international audience.

When the host of the international dance competition in Prague asked the audience who they thought deserved to walk away with the Crystal Cup 2007, the crowd began chanting "Guam!"

"And when the host said, 'you're right, it's Guam,' it gave us goose bumps," said Matthew Wolff, one of the 23 dancers of Guam's SKIP dance troupe, which beat 11 countries in the weeklong International Grand Prix Festival held at the Theatre Broadway in Prague on July 6.

Besides the Crystal Cup, SKIP also bagged the Overall Choreography Championship award and three of its dancers received individual awards. Brian Esperon was the recipient of Senior Overall Modern Talent Award; AJ Arizala received the Junior Overall Modern Talent Award; and Patrick Wolff Jr. won the Outstanding Performance International award.

Besides the Crystal Cup 2007, Guam SKIP dance troupe also bagged the Overall Choreography Championship award and three of its dancers received individual awards.

SKIP defeated delegations from South Korea, India, Spain, Turkey, Mexico, Israel, Switzerland, Japan, USA, Russia, Italy, Slovakia and Belgium.

"The competition was based on all performances staged during the week. According to the organizers, this is the first time a group has won the overall championship and the best choreography award," according to SKIP director Teri Knapp.

"The competition was extremely stiff as the dancers from Russia who were the second place finishers, staged incredible performances. By the evening of the finals, the Guam dancers had won the hearts of the audience," she added.

Matthew Wolff said individual groups from other countries each performed a certain category of dance throughout the weeklong competition, while SKIP performed a variety of dances including jazz, hip hop, gymnastics and character dance.

"We had strong competitions. Other groups were better than us technically. We were told by the judges later that we won because we had more variety than the other groups and that we had a the audience," Wolff said. Before their departure for the Czech Republic, SKIP dancers received a certificate from Gov. Felix P. Camacho recognizing them as Guam's "young ambassadors."

Dancers who represented Guam at the Prague competition were AJ Arizala, Ashley Arizala, Dominic Cadiz, Aria Dimalanta, Arielle Dimalanta, Brian Esperon, Michelle Esperon, Dominique Felix, Kevin Gozalo, Nathan Lizama, Heather Manley, Alyssa Mariano, Reanna Mendiola, Dorian Nelson, Giana Pangelinan, Nicole Quinata, Daron Rios, Tiana Tedtaotao, Amber Tenorio, Chaunese Valencia, Regine Vida, Kristine Vo, Matt Wolff, and Patrick Wolff. They were under the instruction of Chad Knapp. SKIP joins various international dance competitions ex-

a dance,

next.”

Dancing is an art, like a body moving in a perfect stroke of paint on a huge canvas. It is a passion, requiring both skill and talent. It is a form of communication between the audience and performer. Through seamless choreography, the crowd can be transported to a different place and time. These characteristics are the embodiment of the Skip Entertainment Company.

First Hawaiian Bank is proud to support the members of SKIP on their endeavors. They have garnered numerous awards and have become one of our island's pride. We wish them continued success on the road ahead.
